

John Ray Infant School
Outcome of Stakeholder Consultation

John Ray Infant School's governing body consulted on whether the school should convert to academy status and join Saffron Academy Trust. The consultation period ended on 23rd March 2022. During the consultation, meetings were held with Stakeholders and also with staff at the school.

No comments or objections were received during the consultation period.

The school and Saffron Academy Trust will now continue with the next steps in the process, which is subject to approval from the Regional Schools Commissioner.
